Find a researchable History question

Use with your supervisor and awarding organisation guidance. These prompts support your own decisions; they are not assessed answers.

Broad interest and why I want to investigate it:

Narrow it: period, place, people, issue and boundaries:

Working question and what it asks me to explain or evaluate:

Two possible interpretations or explanations I could compare:

Check the evidence before committing

Find accessible evidence first. A very interesting question may still be too broad, too narrow or difficult to research in the time available.

Source / full reference	Access / relevance	Limitations / other view

What can I investigate with these sources? What remains uncertain?

A narrower version and my next supervisor question:

Next research task, date and decision to record in my log:
